FRANK FARRELL'S DEFI

CHICAGO, Nov. 5 .- "They don't pull the stuff on me that they did on McAleer. They made him sell a good thing, but they won't make me repeat," was the tight-lipped defi of Frank Farrell, president of the New York Yankees, on his arrival here today to attend the American League meeting.

"I am still at the head of the New York club. Perhaps my methods haven't suited some folks, but they suit me. I've lost money, but I am not complaining. I want to see them run me out of baseball, if I choose to stay in. They will discover that they have a fight on their hands. I'm not used to quitting in anything. least of all in baseball."

Johnson's Demand May Bring Baseball Peace

Today's Meeting of the Magnates in Chicago Expected to End Warfare on the Diamond-Players' Hoggishness Opens Eyes of Moguls and Cure Is Coming.

By LOUIS A. DOUGHER.

Today's meeting of the monarchs of baseball in Chicago may bring about peace on the diamond. It is sincerely to be wished. America's national pastime is in a sorry way, and requires nourishment. It is thought that a solution of the difficulties now besetting the game will be discovered during the session called to order by Byron Bancroft John-

One thing, anyway, has been forced upon all warring magnates, American, National, and Federal, namely, that the players are proving hogs and are endangering their own livelihood. Therefore, all three leagues have practically decided not to endure this condition. And right here lies the possibility of peace. With the Federal leaguers dropping at least as many thousands as the forces of organized baseball, there is a chance for all three bodies to get together and end it all.
